2019 Speaking Tour with H.E. Leon K. Siu

Nobel Peace Prize Nominee, H.E. Leon Kaulahao Siu, is an engaging speaker and lecturer from the movement to restore the Hawaiian Kingdom as a sovereign, independent state.

Did you know...?

The Hawaiian Islands is not part of the United States?

Hawaii is actually a sovereign country, but under illegal U.S. occupation?

Hawaiians are close to reactivating their independent country?

Learn about the Hawaii independence movement from someone who is actively engaged in the effort to Free Hawaii.

H.E. Leon K. Siu currently serves as the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the Kingdom of the Hawaiian Islands. He is the primary interface with the international community, raising awareness of Hawaii's plight and seeking support to affect a peaceful and orderly end to the United States' illegal occupation of the Hawaiian Islands.

Minister Siu is conversant on the legal, political, economic and social factors involved in the quest to liberate the Hawaiian Islands. Minister Siu also speaks engagingly on a variety of other topics.

Minister Siu was nominated for the 2017 Nobel Peace Prize; the only Hawaiian to be honored with such a distinction.

Mr. Siu is available to speak to your institution or organization regarding the following topics...

- Mauna Kea and The Rise of the Hawaiian Nation
- The genesis of the Hawaiian Kingdom and why it still exists today...
- Origins and dynamics of the "Hawaiian Independence Movement" and where it's headed
- The role of the UN and other international mechanisms, actors and relevant trends
- Looking to the Future – governance, national identity, economic viability, sustainability, etc.
